

The Souvenir Card JOURNAL

THIRD QUARTER 2013

VOLUME 33

THE OFFICIAL PUBLICATION OF THE SOUVENIR CARD COLLECTORS SOCIETY

Cover: An enlargement of an engraving for Rawdon, Wright & Hatch, 1832-1847, contained in the ABNCo Archive Series (SOA 1992). I thought it suitable for our Third Quarter issue, in consort with the BEP's prints of allegorical figures.

I recently renewed our Society's membership in the American Numismatic Association (ANA), which I believe may be for the last time. The "Club dues" are now $75.00/yr., but are reduced by $5 for each "Club" member who is also an ANA member. But, unfortunately, I do not have a record of which members of our Society are also in the ANA and, more importantly, who have not already provided their membership discount to some other "Club."

I believe we had several members who were ANA members and had joined our Society when the BEP was still producing "money" cards. When that was terminated, so were many of their memberships!

I, personally, joined last year so that I could participate at ("man") the Society table that we had last year at the ANA Fair here in Philadelphia. I have decided not to renew that membership. A "Club Midway Bourse Table", under their new "Rules", will cost $200.00! I do not see any way that "exposure" would reflect in an increase in new members!

I would like your comments as to whether our SCCS continuation in the ANA is desirable. Oh yes, one of the other "Club benefits" is permission to use their logo! So, I raise the question, do we "need" to continue our Society's membership?

The Internet, particularly eBay, continues to offer souvenir cards and ABNCo material. In some cases, cards/prints have been cut-down and the reproduced images of money and/or vignettes are offered at considerably more than the individual items in their original form might bring. Even souvenir cards in their original form are being offered for more than the "minimum bids" in our Society's auctions!

Back in the "old days", i.e., 2010 (see SCJ 30:1), I provided, as an "extra benefit of membership", a print-out of a chronological listing of all of the souvenir cards that were included in the Visual Reference series up to that time (end of 2009). The listing was prepared in MS Excel, and copies were offered on a CD for $5.00 postpaid. They are still available.

The original idea was that a member (assuming they had the program) could "modify" the listing to suit their own personal collecting needs, e.g., an inventory of what they had, a "want list" for what they lacked, or any other use they wished. I have recently been asked if I plan to bring the listing up-to-date. The answer is "NO"! Since, I believe that most members do not collect all of the cards listed (I, personally, am only interested in intaglio material), I presumed that a member would modify and continue their own version of the listing as it suited their needs. I was initially surprised that there was very little interest in the CD. I fully understand that some members do not have a computer and/or the Excel program. It also may be that they don't collect chronologically "across the board", which is the reason that our "System" was set up as it was/is, i.e., by issuer. In the latter case, that was thought to be the advantage of the CD, as the columns and rows of the list could be re-arranged and/or deleted to suit one's own individual needs/uses.

The first of the Bureau's intaglio prints has been issued (see inside back cover). It is in color and printed on 8.5"x11" card stock. It is also in a vertical or portrait format. The second card is scheduled for 8 July or about the time you receive this issue. Enjoy!

I wish all the membership a safe and happy Summer!

WANTED! ARTICLES, ILLUSTRATIONS, NEWS, INFORMATION!

I NEED YOUR INPUT for publication in this Journal. Send legible copy and clear (unfolded, please) photocopies, or text with scans (300 dpi minimum) of interesting or unusual items for reproduction. Originals are also welcome, I will return them if requested. Please bear in mind that the "working area" on a page is 6.75" wide by 9.25" high in order to maintain borders and "footer" information. Please include your SCCS membership number and SCCS numbers of the material you send. Thank you.

Membership information and Dues (S.C.C.S.) should be sent to the Treasurer. Requests for back issues and information concerning this Journal, including submission of articles and advertisements should be addressed to the Editor. Thanks!

Recently I was asked to provide input on the Souvenir Card listings in the Scott Specialized Catalogue of U.S. Stamps and Covers. In return, I asked for permission to publish a comparative list of their numbers vis-a-vis those used by our Society. It should be noted that Scott originally only listed (SC) those cards produced by the BEP and the USPS, and, at that, only those which featured stamps. Somewhere around 1985, they added the Bureau's "money" cards, but with a separate (NSC) numbering system (N for "numismatic"?).

As a result, I am providing here such a listing, with the idea that some dealers might use the Scott numbering system, and this would allow the membership, in such dealings, to know which cards are which. Cards are NOT illustrated in their Catalogue.

This listing is chronological. There are some cards which Scott does "not list". Comments invited.

VISUAL REFERENCE—26

William Kriebel (27)

I apologize for the misplacement of the images for B-302 and B-303 of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing in the last issue. The corrected page is at right, with an addition. It is sometimes difficult to be writer, editor and proof reader—all at once!

I also include a newly found Mike Bean card from 2003 (thanks to Dr. Barry Krein), and Mike's latest from the Baltimore show. There were 100 of the latter given away at the show.

MPC ADDENDUM—2

William Kriebel (27)

After entering Greg Alexander's "MPC Addendum" on page 22 of this issue, I went to Gene Hessler's The Comprehensive Catalog of U.S. Paper Money, Fifth Edition, 1992, which I use as a reference, along with several other of his informative books. I don't collect paper money per se, but, in this case, I discovered another image from the same forthcoming BEP intaglio print: the lady seated at the bottom of the print previously appears on the back of the $10.00 MPC Series 591. I contacted Greg and he found the image which appears below.

THE ABNCo BOOK—2

William Kriebel (27)

The first part of this article, reprinting the intaglio images contained in this 1959 publication, appeared in the last issue. This is the concluding part.

Caveat Emptor! As I have noted previously, one can find ABNCo vignettes (or more likely "intaglio prints") on the Internet (especially eBay) being offered (sometimes "rare") of cut-outs from this book and, also of late, from the "Archive Series" (SOA) that were produced via American Bank Note Commemoratives, as six annual folios, between 1987 and 1992. There were 12 pages of vignettes in each, and they included information sheets describing the use of the items and including engraver information. Some of these full, i.e., uncut pages are included in the current auction in this issue. I reproduced these pages in earlier issues of this Journal.

RULES:

Auction No. 26 Bids due 26 July 2013.

1. Only souvenir cards, intaglio-printed material, or related items are acceptable for consignment. Interested sellers should contact the auctioneer with any questions BEFORE sending any material. The fastest contact is by e-mail;

kriebewv@drexel.edu

2. Consignors are responsible for adequately describing their lots, including S.C.C.S. numbers and their minimum bids. Lots must be of a minimum $5 value.

3. Consignors will pay the postage to ship their lots and postage/insurance for return of unsold material. There is NO consignment fee, however, the S.C.C.S. will retain 10% of the selling price as a commission fee. Care shall be taken to protect any material submitted, but the auctioneer and the S.C.C.S. assumes NO liability and the consignor(s) should verify and/or provide their own insurance coverage.

4. Lots will be sold to the highest bidder. In the case of tie bids, the first bid received shall be awarded the lot. Bids below the "minimum" listed are NOT accepted. Bid in $1.00 increments only, i.e., NOT "cents." There is NO buyer's premium.

5. Successful bidders will pay the postage, insurance and packaging for their lots. There is NO buyer's fee, but NO lots will be shipped until the invoice for same is paid in full. Payment is expected within ten (10) days of notice. Late payment may result in exclusion from future bidding. Checks should be made out to the auctioneer NOT the S.C.C.S.

6. Returns are acceptable within ten days of receipt of shipment. Please specify the reason for the return (damage, mis-attribution, etc.) Mistakes on the bidder's part are NOT sufficient reason for return.

7. Bids and/or questions may be e-mailed—the quickest way—regular mail, or carrier.

Auction No. 26 Bids due 26 July 2013.

Note: This auction consists of a variety of material, some of which was previously offered. This will most likely be the LAST TIME that material of minimum value of $1.00 or less will be offered. There seems to be little or no interest, and it takes time/space/effort to list it, and I do NOT like to list multiple card lots. It is assumed that most members already have this material. Comments invited.

Auction No. 26 Bids due 26 July 2013.

[Some of our members are obviously searching the Web. Like Greg here, if you find something of interest (whether or not you purchase it), please share it with the membership. Thanks. Ed.]

Here's an interesting piece I found (but didn't win) on eBay. I don't see a BEP insignia, but it certainly appears to be produced by the Bureau and looks to be intaglio, as well. March 4 would have been the congressional swearing in ceremony and 1939 was the sesquicentennial of Washington's inauguration. This looks like it would qualify as a forerunner card to me.

[Size of the item was not listed. Ed.]

S.C.C.S. AUCTION NO. 25: PRICES REALIZED William Kriebel (27)

This auction following "tax day" brought out ten (10) bidders. Some lots had more than one bid and, as stated, tie bids are awarded to the first received.

Only 38 lots, of the 114 offered sold, for a gross sales of $477.00. Much of the lower value material will not be repeated in these auctions as there appears to be little, if any, interest.

Two lots were withdrawn as they were misdescribed and another lot (63) was mis-assigned but the bidder chose to accept it. It was Q-27sc, not Q-10sc.

The auction can always use good material, so, if you have any duplicates looking for a new "home", please contact me. Thanks.

There are at least two BEP intaglios that were apparently only available through the U.S. Mint: the familiar octagonal-like "Signing of the Declaration of Independence", but in green ink, rather than the more usual brown or black; and the less familiar "Statue of John Marshall". (Of course, if you are a faithful SCJ reader, you know that an early version of the Marshall print was shown on the cover of the Second Quarter 2012 Journal.)

This latest version of the Marshall print [opposite] was included in the Mint's 2005 John Marshall "Coin and Chronicles Set." The set included an uncirculated 2005 John Marshall silver dollar (encapsulated), an 18 page pamphlet describing his life and career, and the intaglio print. It was packaged in a three section fold out holder, 8.25" x 5.25" x 1" when closed, 8.25" x 17.5" when open. It had a slip cover that had the "Certificates of Authenticity" of the Mint and BEP printed on the back. Both the holder and its slip cover were of light card stock. (Let me just say that my first impression of the packaging was "Sort of cheap looking for a Mint product.")

The card is 5" x 7", and is enclosed in a 5" x 7" translucent plastic holder (which is just a piece of 7" x 10" plastic folded in half.) The card is held in place by two tabs. In the sets I have seen, even with the plastic cover on the card, the tabs are beginning to make an impression on the card. Not nearly as bad as the "B31 corner creases", but I would still recommend removing the card from the card-stock holder if you obtain a set. The original in the "Statue Book" was 7.5" x 11.375" (see Greg Alexander's article in SCJ 32:2; and SCJ 16:3 for an earlier note on the frontispiece by William Kriebel.) The card is also pictured at page 22 of the 1989 "Numbering System..." book by Curtis Radford. The card illustrated there appears to be shown full size there, and measures 6.375 x 8.25; it might be a reprint from a presentation book, but it could be a cut-down frontispiece.

The issue price for the set from the Mint was $59.95. There were 25,000 sets produced, and apparently all were sold. The coin alone was available from the Mint for about $30. The packaging and pamphlet could not have cost the Mint more than a few dollars, so the Mint was in effect charging about $25 for the card! There are usually several of these sets available on eBay at any given time. The "Buy is Now" price is usually about $50, but I have seen it sell at auction for as low as $30, including postage. The coin alone sometimes sells for more than that. Of course, if the price of silver bullion goes up, so will the price for the set.

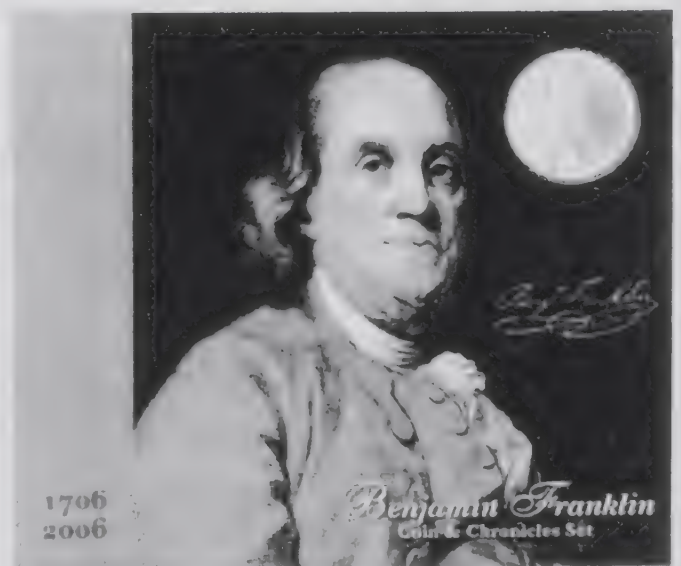

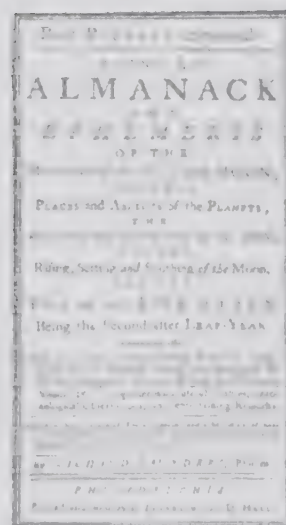

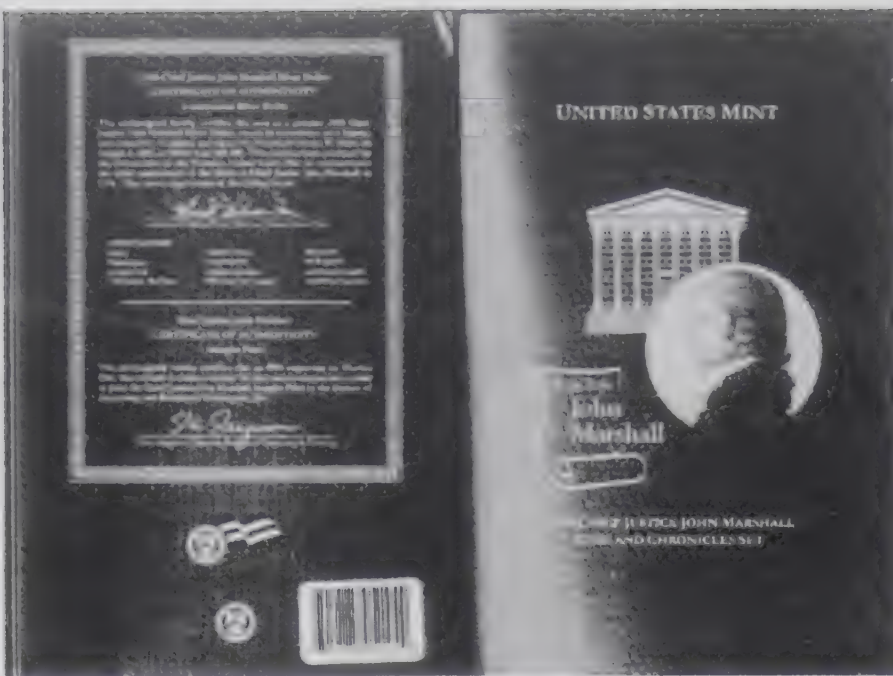

The "Declaration" green intaglio [next page] was included in the 2006 Benjamin Franklin "Coin and Chronicles Set." This set included an uncirculated Franklin "Scientist" silver dollar, a 36 page facsimile reprint of the 1758 "Poor Richard's Almanac" done by the Government Printing Office, four Franklin stamps issued that year (Scott numbers 4021-4024), and the intaglio. (The intaglio seems to be from the same die as used on B130.) They are in a 7.5" x 6.5" fold over cardboard holder (7.5" x 13" when open.) The stamps and intaglio are under a sort of plastic bubble. The coin is in sort of a see-through plastic cover so both sides of the coin can be seen. The cardboard holder and the Almanac fit into a slipcase of light card stock; it has the "Certificates of Authenticity" printed on the back. Unlike the Marshall coin, which is in a capsule which can be removed from the box (the same type capsule as in the coin-only packaging), the coin in the Franklin set can not be removed without destroying the packaging. Like wise, the stamps and the intaglio cannot be removed without destroying the packaging. The intaglio is trimmed, leaving about 1/4 inch margin on all eight sides.

The issue price for this set was $65. I could not find the number sold, but since the total of all uncirculated "Scientist" dollars was only 58,000, I would be surprised if more than 25,000 sets were sold. (For comparison, there were about 67,000 Marshall uncirculated coins sold, with 25,000 of them going into sets.) The Franklin set usually sells on eBay for about $50 as "Buy It Now", or $30 or more at auction. It generally sells for just a bit more than the Marshall set - maybe because it has $1.56 of mint stamps included.

I am aware of ten other BEP intaglios that were included in Mint products: a cut to currency size Indian Chief $5 Silver Certificate face (same as B41, but cut down); a cut to currency size $10 Buffalo note face (same as B270, but cut down); and the portrait-vignette engravings of the first eight presidents (PV 1 through 8). But these were also available from the BEP in some form.

The Indian Chief note was included in the 2001 American Buffalo "Coin and Currency" Set. (The set also included the Buffalo dollar and two stamps.) It was behind a plastic "bubble" similar to that used in the Franklin set, so again it could not be removed from the set without destroying the packaging. Because the coin became very expensive (a quantity limit imposed by the Mint at the last minute left dealers desperate to get coins to fill orders), the sets were frequently broken up to get the coins. The issue was

50,000 sets at $54.95. The set now sell for about $125 on eBay. Occasionally you see the Chief reprint still in its "bubble" which has been cut off from the rest of the set. They have sold for as little as $3, as much as $10. [If I remember a conversation I had with Mike Bean correctly, there is a slight difference between the Coin and Currency set reprint and a cut-down B41 due to a difference in the printing process: the card stock of the reprint from the set appears slightly slicker, though you have to carefully compare the two to see a difference.]

The Buffalo note was included in the 2004 Lewis and Clark "Coin and Currency" set, again behind a plastic "bubble". In addition to the Lewis and Clark dollar coin, this set included two nickels, a Sacagawea dollar, a silver-plated peace medal, and three stamps. There was an issue of 50,000 sets at $90. I have seen them go as low as $40 on eBay, but $60 is more common. I have examined a note from the set next to a B270; they appear indistinguishable. [Interesting aside: someone had a bunch of these Buffalo note reprints "slabbed" by the Paper Currency Grading Service (PCGS); I have seen the "slabbed" reprint go for as little as $20, as much as $300, though $75 to $100 seems to be the most common price range. I have seen about a dozen offered; and on every one of them the slab mis-identifies the reprint as coming from the American Buffalo set, rather than the Lewis and Clark set it actually comes from.]

In 2007 and 2008 the Mint issued something it called the "Presidential $1 Coin Historical Signature Set". It issued four Presidential "gold" dollars each year, and offered for each of these eight dollars a set which consisted of an encapsulated proof coin and a cut-down "PV" print for that particular president. The print was glued between a mat with an oval cut out and the cardboard cover. At an issue price of about $20 each, sales were not great. Sales were about 15,000 each in 2007, dropping to about 4000 for the 2008 issues. The 2007 sets usually go for about $20 on eBay, though I have seen some go as low as $10; The 2008 sets go for around $50 to $100.

There were other "Coin and Currency" sets that included current Federal Reserve Notes printed by the BEP, but I don't think that is the kind of BEP product that is of interest to souvenir card collectors.

[One copy of each of these two prints are included, courtesy of the author, in the current auction, as a donation to the Society: Lots xxx and xxx. Ed.]

[In the last issue of this Journal, the author provided a connection between souvenir cards and the MPC (Military Payment Certificates) notes produced by the BEP. He shows here another, compared with one of the latest Bureau cards. Ed.]

Just thought I'd point out that the third card (Liberty) features another vignette that appears on a Military Payment Certificate. The upper left portrait looks to be the same one found on the $1 Series 521 MPC.

SOUVENIR CARDS AVAILABLE AND/OR FORTHCOMING AND MAJOR SHOWS

This listing is intended to alert the membership and serve as an update of the SCCS numbering system. Numbers are shown in “()” until confirmed and will be deleted when no longer available (“N.A.”) from the initial sources. It does NOT include ASDA or UN cards as this information is NOT readily available in advance of the event. It is as complete as possible and no responsibility is taken for changes. Anyone who can supply missing (“?”) information and/or data concerning availability should please contact the Editor. I also list forthcoming/major shows. Whether or not souvenir cards will be issued at these shows will be reported if and when such information becomes available. Card sources are listed at the top of the next page.
